

Job Posting: Buyer

Are you interested in a career that is fast-paced with variation in daily activities? Do you enjoy working in a team and collaborating with others? How about solving problems and thinking critically? Then a position in Logistics as a Buyer may be right for you.

Here are some skills and abilities that are required:

- Administrative Functions: Able to plan, budget, and organize different resources (e.g., human, financial, or physical). Activities may include weekly scheduling and managing expenses.
- Supply Chain: Understand the basic components of a supply chain and the related concepts, such as demand forecasting, capacity planning, just-in-time production and supply chain process improvement.
- Complex Problem Solving: Identifying complex problems and reviewing related information to develop and evaluate options and implement solutions.
- Critical Thinking: Using logic and reasoning to identify the strengths and weaknesses of alternative solutions, conclusions or approaches to problems.
- Coordination: Gather and pass along information between multiple departments for logistical and operational planning purposes (e.g., supply chain, resource scheduling); account for possible issues with contingency plans for different areas.
